

WINE NOOK™

A BRIEF HISTORY . . .

The Wine Nook was born from two artists' desire to class up the boxed wine experience. Conceptualized and created by artist Cindy Saadeh and craftsman Michael Ripper, Saadeh was looking for a smart way to serve larger quantities of wine for her gallery events. She determined that boxed wine was an eco-friendly and economical way to enjoy wine without the constraints of bottled wine, but she disliked the look and feel of the box itself. She knew there needed to be a way to combine quality and functionality. Enter wood craftsman and business partner Michael Ripper. Both Saadeh and Ripper have an extensive background in the arts, and together they designed a simple yet stylish way to easily serve boxed wine. With its embossed leather handle and lightweight hardwood pine, the Wine Nook is perfect for on the go, at home, or at any event you may have. Now a U.S. patented design, no two Wine Nooks are alike, with each being handmade, hand-distressed, and hand-finished. They are currently being sold online through WineNook.net and Amazon.com, as well as in store at Cindy Saadeh Fine Art Gallery in Kingsport, TN. More locations to come.
